Synopsis:

A very special vision of the future as the relationship between technology and football accelerates and reaches the penultimate in this fantasy adventure. GGO football players are actually artificial intelligence robots who are artfully manipulated by their human controllers. These football players are organic, created with speed, strength and skills far beyond any human levels. An ensemble cast of kid heroes, lead by the spirited Isaac, come together with their own GGO players, facing hardships, challenges and stiff competition as they compete to capture the coveted GGO International Cup. GGO Football brings action, excitement, strategy, suspense and a slight touch of humor that will entertain kids worldwide.
